HAS YOUR ESTATE PLAN KEPT UP WITH CHANGES IN THE LAW?

Date: September 26, 2006

Place: Online

Time: 11:00 A.M. CENTRAL

Highlights include:

- How existing changes in the law have affected every estate plan prepared prior to 2001
- Changes that must be made to ensure that a surviving spouse is provided for as planned
- A simple change that must be made to avoid paying an unnecessary Illinois estate tax
- Changes that should be made to powers of attorney to conform to changes in the law
- How changes in family circumstances can affect an existing estate plan
- How recent court decisions have affected Family Limited Partnerships and what can be done about it
- The prospect for further changes in the Federal and Illinois estate tax

Presented By:

Sigmund J. Chavis
J.D., LL.M. (TAXATION)

Sigmund Chavis is a partner at Shaheen, Novoselsky, Staat, Filipowski & Eccleston, P.C. where he focuses his practice on estate planning with an emphasis on closely-held businesses.

His 30 year experience includes providing tax-wise solutions to business succession planning, multi-generational estate planning, and "non-traditional family" planning.

He helps clients implement charitable giving programs, and he has practiced and supervised attorneys and other professionals in trust and estate administration.

Sig also counsels businesses in optimum structuring, and assists physician groups in structuring relationships with hospitals and other health care entities.

He counsels physicians, physician groups, medical laboratories and bio-detection firms.

Sig has authored several publications and given many presentations on estate planning. He is a recipient of the Distinguished Speaker Award from the Chicago Estate Planning Council.
